

Do not overturn/by-pass Indiana's telephone privacy law. We can speak with our bank, credit card company, etc. whenever WE want, but I do not want them calling me with every offer or additional service they have. If there is a legitimate problem with my account, they can call anyway.
Please maintain our right to uninterrupted time at home. It is wonderful!
Thanks, Ava Smith